Online Youth Leader/Youth interactions (Personal accounts/numbers) – On next page

While we recognize that we are living in an increasingly digital age, and that youth almost exclusively communicate via text and/or social media, ministry personnel need to exercise caution when/if they interact with youth on social media platforms.

Communicating with youth via text and/or social media is permitted under the following conditions:

1. Parents/Guardians are aware and have given written permission (by signing Youth Permission form).
2. Youth are informed that messages may be shared with parents/guardians and pastoral staff of the church for accountability and liability purposes.
3. No photographs of youth will be taken without approval. No photographs of youth will be printed or posted online without prior approval (See Youth Permission Form).
4. Interactions will not involve video messaging (Facetime, etc.), unless it is for ministry training, a group conference call, or if it is approved by parent/guardian and a member of the pastoral staff.
5. Personnel will not interact with youth using any social media platform where records of messages cannot be kept (e.g. Snapchat).
6. It is strongly recommended that text/social media interactions be for the purposes of communication, rather than significant conversation. Examples could include, "Are you coming to the youth event next week?" or, "Hey, we missed you at youth last night. Hope to see you next week."
7. If interactions move toward conversations of a sensitive or personal nature, it is strongly recommended that personnel plan an in-person meeting with the youth. Examples could include, "I heard you broke up with your boyfriend. Do you want to talk in person about it?" Or, "Your Mom told me your Grandpa died. I am so sorry. Do you want to go for coffee and chat?"

*As part of the parameters set by the church, youth volunteers are required to inform the ministry leader of any significant online conversations (including providing screenshots if necessary), prohibited from deleting any messages from conversations with youth, and required to provide access to conversation history with any youth when requested.

Online Interactions (Church accounts)

Currently, our church uses the following social media platforms: YouTube, Facebook, and Instagram.

Interactions with youth from church accounts will be for the purposes of promoting church events (including sending reminders to attend), short notes of encouragement (e.g. "Let's continue to pray for everyone during exams."), and to arrange in-person meetings. Ministry personnel will refrain from using church accounts for relationship-building or providing counselling to youth.

Parent/Guardian Statement

I have read and understood the Gathering Youth Leader policies relating to interactions with youth online. By signing below, I hereby give my permission for my child(ren) to interact with ministry personnel as outlined in those policies.
